

5.5.20

Hi to Kung Fu Wushu NSW members

This is our Ninth information update on the Covid 19 virus.

GOVERNMENT GUIDELINES FOR RECOVERY OF SPORT & RECREATION

Attached are the latest AIS National Principles for the Resumption of Sport & Recreational Activities and the complementary document 'Waiting for Level B'. It is anticipated that Sport & Recreational Activities will be able to recommence at the end of May. The exact time will vary from State to State – we will keep you advised.

Level A: is the first stage of coming out of the lockdown, please read carefully what Level A means and how you can fit in with it.

Level B: is the next stage and it will only be implemented if there is no significant spike in infections after the implementation of Level A – this will take a bit of time.

Level C: Is simply full training as it was before the shutdown.

INSURANCE

Further inquiries about insurance. I can advise that you are fully covered provided all Government Regulations are adhered to in the way you conduct your classes once they recommence

FOREHEAD THERMOMETER

I have attached a photo of a 'Forehead Thermometer', the use of this device will be mandated as part of the recovery strategy. I urge you to purchase however many you may need to ensure that all of your students are able to be checked before each class (one unit per class is all that is needed). I will give you more details of this with our next Bulletin but I thought advance notice for our members was important in case there is a run on these and they become hard to get (remember toilet paper). They range in price from $30 to $130. They can be purchased online. I am aware that the online Chemist supplies such as 'Chemist Warehouse', 'Pharmacy Online' & Amcal sell them but I am sure there are many other outlets.

RECOVERY COMMITTEE

The Recovery Committee has started work on a range of strategies to assist our members after the shutdown is lifted. We will be releasing a 'Recovery Kit' to help all members get their classes back. There will be more on this as part of our next Bulletin. As always questions, texts, calls are welcome.
